

Sail Magazine Names the Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 35 Top 10 Winner

Atlantic City, NJ – Sail Magazine announced the winners of their Top 10 contest on Thursday night, January 9th at the Atlantic Sail Expo in Atlantic City, NJ.

In eight full days of testing, Sail's judges test-sailed critiqued, analyzed, and debated the pros and cons of 37 new boats in an effort to find ten exceptional ones. Each boat was judged according to how it fulfilled the manufacture's stated purpose in categories that included performance under sail, handling under power, safety and comfort on deck and below, livability, engine and systems installation and access, construction quality, aesthetics, and value for money. After all was said and done and the results tallied, the new Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 35 proved to be a Top 10 winner having met or exceeded all criteria.

According to Top 10 Judge, Nigel Calder, "The Sun Odyssey 35 is extremely maneuverable, has nice ambience down below, and above-average systems installations" Base priced at just $99,900, the Sun Odyssey 35 represents real quality and exceptional value.
